BYU - Hawaii

Declaration of Intent to Enroll

Aloha Naoto Inamori, Haven't decided yet? Decide later.

Congratulations once again on your admission to Brigham Young University - Hawaii for Semester! We are excited that you can soon have the opportunity to join us and experience the beautiful and unique campus, culture, and learning environment only found here.

We ask that you now respond to your admission offer with a declaration of your intent to enroll at BYU-Hawaii by making a selection from the options below. This will allow us to understand your level of commitment and thus help us to further prepare you for your transition to campus.

It is very important that we receive your declaration of intent because hundreds of well-qualified students are consistently unable to gain admission each semester because of space limitations. As you may know, part of the mission of BYU-Hawaii is to expand educational opportunities to members of the Church in Asia, Hawaii, and the Pacific. Therefore, spaces for students from other parts of the world, including the mainland U.S., are very limited. As you can understand, we would like to be able to continue to offer this opportunity to the many students that strongly desire to come and graduate from BYU-Hawaii as possible.

Once you submit your selection from the options below, it will be sent to the Admissions Office. Once it is processed you will receive:

- The ability to create a student account that will allow you to register for classes once your registration appointment time is valid
- The ability to create a 'go.byuh.edu' student email account
- The ability to apply for on-campus housing before you arrive at BYU-Hawaii
- A transfer of credit evaluation (for transfer students only)
- The ability to complete the Statement of Legal Residence

PLEASE NOTE that if you are an international student or had declared that your native language is not English on BeSmart.com, you may not have the ability to register for classes until after English placement testing has been completed

You are encouraged to declare your intent to enroll as soon as possible. The expected deadline to submit your intent to enroll for Winter semester is July 1st. Failure to do so may result in a withdrawal of your admissions offer.

- I will definitely enroll at BYU-Hawaii for the semester, to which I have been admitted.
- I will not attend BYU-Hawaii at this time. I would like to cancel my acceptance to BYU-Hawaii.
- I have received a mission call and I wish to defer my enrollment until after my mission.

* If you choose to defer your admission to go on a mission, please see the 'how to defer' page.

4. Submit to confirm your decision to attend BYU-Hawaii
